

PRESENTS

BATTLE OF THE SMASHERS

Drummoyne Oval
Sunday, 18 December
9am-6pm

IT'S WAUGH!

Australian cricket great Steve Waugh returns to the crease in a star-studded Twenty20 match that's put a host of celebrities in the firing line. Host, City of Canada Bay Mayor Angelo Tsirekas invites you to a first class entertaining family day out for charity and fun.

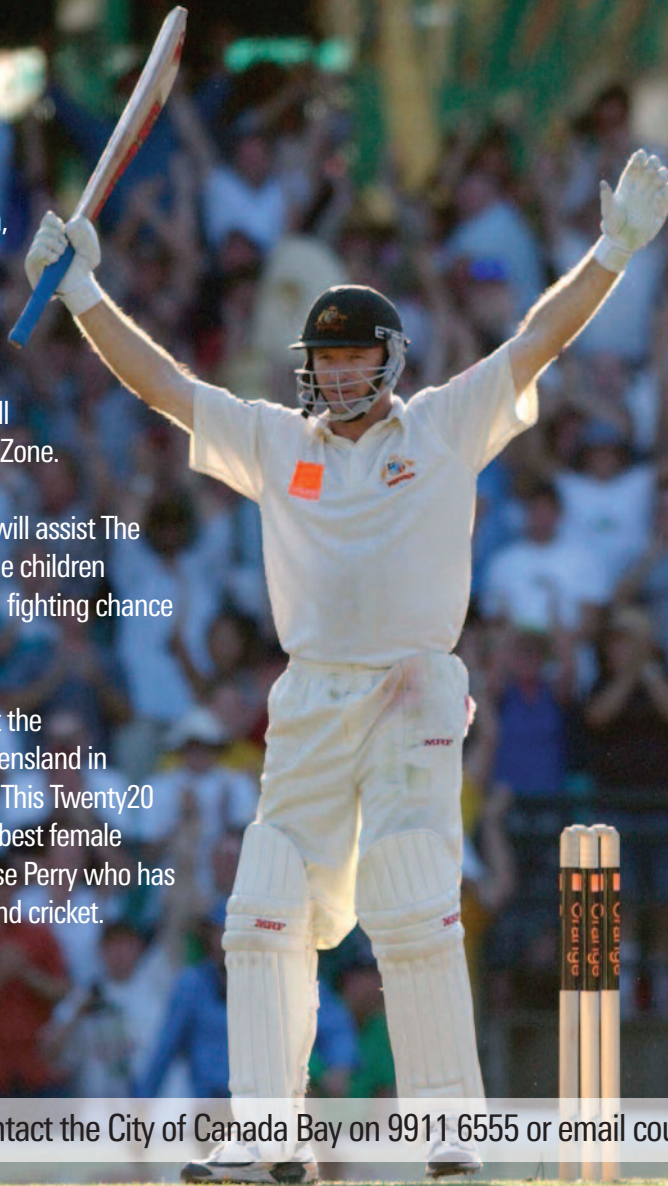

Game I:
NSW Breakers
v Queensland Fire
9.30am-1pm

Game II:
Canada Bay Exiles
v Waugh's Warriors
2-6pm

Join NRL stars Robbie Farah, Chris Lawrence, Chris Heighington, Paul Gallen, Nathan Hindmarsh, NSW Origin coach Ricky Stuart, NRL boss David Gallop, league legends Paul Sironen, Brad Clyde, Hazem El Masri and Aussie football great Mark Bosnich in the Waugh Zone.

Entry is by donation and all funds will assist The Steve Waugh Foundation to provide children suffering from rare diseases with a fighting chance and 'somewhere to turn'.

The champion NSW Breakers start the action-packed day by playing Queensland in cricket's answer to State of Origin. This Twenty20 game features some of Australia's best female cricketers, including superstar Ellyse Perry who has represented her nation in soccer and cricket.

There's something for everyone!

- Celebrities and sporting champions
- A world class athletics event
- Autograph booths and photo opportunities with celebrities
- A free kids coaching clinic hosted by the Sydney Cricket Club
- Native animal display
- Santa, face painting, music and much, much more.

Other ways you can get involved in this great community event include:

- Corporate sponsorship
- Join the 12th Man Club and for $500 be part of a team
- Twenty20 team fundraising - put in $20 yourself and get 20 friends to join in and donate to the Foundation
- Make a personal donation to the Foundation.

"I'm proud the City of Canada Bay is supporting The Steve Waugh Foundation through the Battle of the Smashers II and I would encourage for everyone to come along and support a great family day out. Steve Waugh's Foundation offers children affected by a rare disease hope and comfort."

Angelo Tsirekas, Mayor of the City of Canada Bay

"I believe you're only as good as the team around you. Thanks to everyone involved and who comes along to the Battle of the Smashers to support us. I'm looking forward to a fun day out with a team of good mates and sporting champions playing for kids and families affected by rare diseases. Always 100."

Australian cricket great Steve Waugh AO

"Steve Waugh was described in the media as "heroic" for the courage he displayed as a cricketer, but nothing matched what he's achieved through his Foundation. Waugh has provided hope and compassion to families who, before his intervention, may've feared no-one cared about their child's plight."

Sun-Herald sports journalist Daniel Lane, managing director of BombsAway Productions

"As one of the teams he played against, Sydney Cricket Club is happy to support Steve Waugh and his magnificent Foundation. Come to Drummoyne on December 18th and help him make a difference to a sick child's life. We're grateful for the opportunity to co-host such a wonderful event."

Sydney Cricket Club's General Manager, David Kelly
